(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 17.—At the request of President Wilson, Secretary Glass will accept appointment as Senator from Virginia to succeed the late Senator Thomas S. Martin. It was announced today at the White House. After receiving the appointment from Gov. Davis of Virginia Mr. Glass asked the President what his wishes were and Mr. Wilson replied that he would like Mr. Glass to accept. Mr. Glass consulted with members of the Senate who told him that there was no particular need for him to take the oath as Senator for a week or more, meantime he will continue to serve as head of the Treasury Department. At the White House it was said no successor to Mr. Glass had been decided upon.

NO OFFER RECEIVED FROM RUSSIA

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 17.—State department officials said today no communication had been received from Morlens the Bolshevik representative at New York, offering to provide ships for Russians in this country desiring to return home and who might be regarded by the United States as undesirable. Officials would not discuss the matter but remarked jokingly that if the Russian government would not help pay for the transportation of Russian radicals deported from this country, the American tax payers would be saved money.

CAPTURE OF OMSK IS REASSERTED

(By Associated Press)
London, Nov. 17.—The capture of Omsk by Russian Soviet forces unofficially denied in advices yesterday, is reasserted in a Bolshevik communication received by wireless from Moscow today. Several street fighting preceded the capture and more than 1000 prisoners were taken by the Bolsheviks. It is claimed. The statement adds that the Kolchak forces retreated eastward in disorder.

The police blotter on Sunday morning contained the names of one for non support and one lodger.

(By Associated Press)
New York, Nov. 17.—Milk drivers whose recent threat of a strike won them an increase in pay and sent milk prices up found a consumers strike in progress in many parts of New York this morning when they made their early morning deliveries. Hanging on doors of many homes and apartments were signs reading "milk strike, no milk wanted here until Thursday." Producers and distributors of milk have protested against the strike asserting that it is made effective the result will be that many producers will be obliged to go out of business, thus decreasing the milk supply.

PRESIDENT ENJOYS A SUN BATH

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 17.—President Wilson was taken down stairs in a wheel chair and rolled out on the White House lawn on the South side where he basked in the sunshine for a short time. This was the first time he had left the White House since his return from the western tour during which he was taken ill.

PRESIDENT WILL POCKET PEACE TREATY

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 17.—President Wilson will pocket the Peace Treaty if it contains the Lodge reservations, he told Senator Hitchcock at a conference today at the White House. "The President had read and considered the Lodge reservations," Senator Hitchcock said, "and he considers them a nullification of the Treaty and utterly impossible." The program outlined by Senator Hitchcock after he had seen President Wilson last week will be carried through in the Senate. Mr. Hitchcock said this contemplated defeat of the ratification reservations with the Lodge reservations attached and the offer of ratification for ratification that reservations with the defeat of this resolution a deadlock would follow and a compromise would be sought. Senator Hitchcock was with the President for an hour. "I find the President is very much improved since I saw him last," Senator Hitchcock said on leaving the White House. "He looks much better, talks better and is much more aggressive. I find that he has read and considered the Lodge reservations and that he considers them a nullification of the Treaty and utterly impossible." "Did the President tell you what his course would be in the event of the Lodge Reservations are accepted by the Senate?" he was asked. "The President will pocket the Treaty," was the reply. "Even if reservation 15 is stricken out." "Yes, that would make no difference in the President's decision," he added.

THE SENATE'S ACTION CAUSES GREAT INTEREST

(By Associated Press)
Paris, Nov. 17.—The news of the adoption by the United States Senate of ten reservations to the German Peace Treaty was received with great interest in peace conference circles. The point apparently being most discussed by delegates is as to whether the Senate will ultimately insist upon the reservations being formally approved by the other governments as now spelled in the preamble. In French circles the indications are that the French government is not prepared to give its formal approval. There is likewise much speculation as to how far the American reservations might possibly affect the reservations some of the new powers such as China, Roumania, and Yugoslavia desired to make.

D'ANNUNZIO IS MASTER OF THE SITUATION

(By Associated Press)
Rome, Nov. 16.—Gabriele D'Annunzio's most recent exploit appears to have made him master of the entire Italian coast. It has secured the adherence to his side of Admiral Millo, commander of the Italian occupation forces in Dalmatia, thus giving D'Annunzio a continuous command from the Austro-Italian frontiers to the north of Rome, southward to Regium, covering all the approaches to the Adriatic coast. Four warships including a dreadnaught and four destroyers have been added to D'Annunzio's naval command giving him a formidable weapon with which to dominate his present position.

AGREES ON AN ARMY OF 300,000

Washington, Nov. 16.—The house committee on military affairs has definitely determined to fix the size of the regular army at 250,000 combat troops, with a total enlisted personnel of officers and men reaching about 300,000. Announcement of this decision was made in the house today by Representative Kahn, republican, of California, chairman of the committee.

The provision will not be reported until the December session of congress, however, for the reason that the committee has reached no conclusion on the question of universal military training and several other important policies involved in army reorganization. Mr. Kahn left here for California today, and further hearings on the measure will not be resumed until December 15.

In his statement to the house, Mr. Kahn said:

"The committee has reached a practically unanimous conclusion as to the size of the regular army at this time. We feel that the legislation ought to contemplate a regular force of 250,000 combat troops. With the necessary auxiliary forces and combat troops it probably will bring the total number of officers and men to about 300,000. Enlisted men in the regular army, we feel, should be recruited by voluntary enlistments."

The committee also has agreed, Mr. Kahn said, to have promotions made from a single list. This is the policy recommended by General Pershing who also recommended a regular army of not more than 300,000. The recommendation of the secretary of war was for an army of 500,000 officers and men.

"The matter of the national guard and universal military training," Mr. Kahn continued, "will be fully considered by the committee in connection with legislation for reorganization of the military establishment."

"It is believed by the members of the committee that in the legislation we will ultimately report such branches of the army as a gull section and a chemical section will have to be provided. These are two of the new developments of modern warfare. A number of new divisions and bureaus of the supply department were also created during the war. While the air service was divorced from the signal corps and functioned as a separate organization. Some of these new organizations have been continued under the army appropriation of July 11, 1919, until June 30, 1920. Others will continue at the discretion of the President under the Overman act until six months after the proclamation of peace.

"It is only fair to state that there is diversity of opinion among the officers of the regular establishment as to the final solution of these problems. The committee is desirous of receiving all the light that may be obtained regarding the subjects."

$3,250,000

Eastern Manufacturing Company of Massachusetts

First Preferred Stock 7% Cumulative

From a letter of Fred R. Ayer, President of the Company, we summarize as follows:

CAPITALIZATION

(After giving effect to this financing)

	Authorized	Outstanding
First Preferred Stock, 7% Cumulative	$3,250,000	$3,250,000
Second Preferred Stock, 7% Cumulative	1,000,000	1,000,000
Common Stock	160,000 sh.	140,000 sh.

*The nominal or par value of the Common Stock is $5 a share, as under the laws of Massachusetts a nominal or par value of at least $5 is required.

The Eastern Manufacturing Company, to be incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, will acquire all the assets and business of the Eastern Manufacturing Company of Maine, founded 1889. The Company is one of the largest manufacturers of bleached sulphite pulp and writing papers, and is the only extensive manufacturer of high-grade writing paper in the United States which produces its own raw material. The timber holdings of the Company and its subsidiaries aggregate 224,000 acres. Its plants in Bangor and Lincoln, Maine, have a present annual output of about 40,000 tons of sulphite pulp and about 25,000 tons of writing paper per annum. The gross sales for the latest fiscal year amounted to about $8,000,000.

The First Preferred Stock, 7% Cumulative, is protected by conservative restrictions, and has preference as to both assets and earnings. A cumulative sinking fund, accruing from January 1, 1920, is estimated to redeem the entire issue within twenty years by call or by purchase at not exceeding 110 and accrued dividends.

The net quick assets of the Company, after giving effect to this financing, according to a balance sheet prepared by Messrs. Boyden & Steacie, Inc., are in excess of $3,666,000, or over $112 for each share of First Preferred Stock.

The land, buildings, machinery, equipment and other fixed assets owned by the Company in fee, as appraised by the National Appraisal Company, with allowance for subsequent additions and deductions, are valued at $3,662,000. The net value of the Company's equity in the subsidiary companies is estimated at over $1,000,000. The net assets of the Company are thus over $8,300,000, or over $250 for each share of First Preferred Stock.

The net earnings of the Company for the past four years (1919 partly estimated), after adequate maintenance charges, but before deducting Federal taxes, and interest charges to be eliminated by this financing, have averaged $1,050,000, or over four and one-half times the annual dividend requirements on the First Preferred Stock.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 16.—A conference tomorrow between President Wilson and Senator Hitchcock, the democratic leader of the senate in charge of the peace treaty, is expected to determine largely the fate of the treaty and the chances for an adjournment of the special session of congress. Senator Hitchcock expects to be able to obtain from the President a final word of the form of the reservations that he will accept. The conference was arranged by Senator Hitchcock at the request of some democratic members of the senate.

ORGANIZE HEALTH DEPT.

(By Associated Press)
Rio De Janeiro, Nov. 16.—President Pessoa has sent to congress a message recommending complete organization of the national health department on lines that will enable it to deal more effectively with the public health of the country.

Matters concerning public health are at present under the direction of the minister of justice and the interior. President Pessoa asks congress to authorize the creation of a separate department of health, the head of which would be a member of the cabinet. This department, it is proposed, would also take over control of the bureau of public instruction, now attached to the ministry of justice and interior.

WANT RUSSIANS TO RETURN HOME

(By Associated Press)
New York, Nov. 16.—Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled American ambassador from Soviet Russia, has offered to provide transportation to Russia of all Russians who desire to return home, or all of those Russians whose presence in this country is undesirable.

This offer was made in a letter to Secretary of State Lansing and made public tonight. In the letter, Martens protests against the unwarranted and cruel treatment of Russian citizens in this country by state and federal officers and sometimes by mobs. He declares that he has received thousands of applications from Russians who are anxious to get out of this country and return to Russia.

MINERS AND OPERATORS TO MEET TODAY

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Nov. 16.—Negotiations for a new wage scale for the soft coal miners stood in much the same situation tonight as when the miners and operators last met at Buffalo in their fruitless effort to frame a wage scale to take the place of the Washington scale. This time however, there will be no threat of strike and both sides will resume their conference tomorrow with the hope of reaching a final agreement.

RECTOR FLAYS ANTI-SALOON ADVOCATE

London, Nov. 16.—American prohibitionists who are campaigning to make England "dry" were sharply criticized by the Rev. H. L. Warneford, a Wiltshire rector, in a sermon which he published. Mr. Warneford declares that "men who would come and try to banish one of God's good gifts from our island had best be given a week's notice to clear. Isn't it enough to provoke national wrath that men should come from over the water to try and force upon us measures which if themselves are decidedly fishy? What on earth is their object?"

AMERICAN PRESTIGE HAS GOOD EFFECT

Erivan, Armenia, Nov. 16.—American military prestige has caused the emigration of thousands of anti-Armenian Tartars from this district. Convinced by a widespread rumor that American troops were coming to protect Armenia, the Tartar-persecutors of that race are emigrating in droves.

The largest single group of these emigrants is a caravan of 6,000 persons, comprising the population of fourteen Tartar villages on the south-west slope of Mount Aragats, which is now encamped along the railway line on the border of Turkey at Echmiadzin, awaiting permission to enter the Sultan's domain. Move on the way, from the belief that the American Army is on its way to Asia Minor to punish all those who persecuted the Armenians.

The rumor has had a salutary effect upon the precarious situation of Armenians living amongst the Tartars. Under Turkish rule the Tartars have seen the wildest, most uncontrolled tribes. Up to the present they feared no one.

PRIEST GAVE WARNINGS OF AIR RAIDS

London, Oct. 19 (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Explosions at Father Meens, who warned London of impending German air raids during the war and who worked with Edith Cavell, the martyred British nurse, in aiding British prisoners to escape from Belgium, have just been disclosed by the Roman Catholic periodical, The Universe. Father Meens, who lived in Brussels, was associated with the Allied Intelligence Department. Once he disguised himself as a cattle driver, and making his way to Ostend found the hiding place of the German submarines.

Air raids to England, the priest learned, were usually preceded by a dinner of the officers of the Zeppelins and Gothas. By pretending to be a pastry-cook he discovered when the dinners were to be held. Carrier pigeons carried his messages to Holland and, before six p. m., the British ministry would have word of the coming raids.

Escaped British prisoners, seeking Nurse Cavell, proceeded, disguised, to Brussels, and were met there by a little girl or eleven. She used to carry a big doll, run about and play and look in the shop windows. Without any sign on her part of recognizing the soldiers, she would lead them to the house where Nurse Cavell awaited them. There the men were bandaged, transformed into "hospital patients" and turned over to "Baron Janssen," otherwise Father Meens, who took them over the frontier.

On the night of Nurse Cavell's arrest Father Meens had been sent to Holland to carry a message for Cardinal Mercier, thus escaping death, as he had arranged to meet at midnight two other conspirators, both of whom were taken and shot.

FOYE'S

CAN CARRY SOMETHING ON THE HIP

Boston citizens and others in New England who are in the habit of carrying their own pocket flasks with their favorite alcoholic drinks and serving themselves in hotels independently of the management are beginning to wonder whether or not the practice is lawful.

The question was referred, recently, to a government expert on the Volstead act, the measure adopted by Congress for the enforcement of wartime and federal prohibition. The answer of the expert was that, in Title No. 1, which is the part of the law that concerns wartime prohibition, there was nothing to prevent a citizen from carrying his own alcoholic drinks from his home to some other place where he desired to refresh himself.

But after the 18th amendment—the prohibition amendment—becomes effective on Jan. 16 the pocket flask must be relegated. The permit system then goes into operation, a system which will practically stop the moving of liquor from place to place, even in a pocket flask. On the instance of permit the law says:

"Every permit shall be in writing, dated when issued, and signed by the commissioner or his authorized agent. It shall give the name and address of the person to whom it is issued and shall designate and limit the acts that are permitted and the time when and the place where such acts may be performed. No permit shall be issued until a verified, written application shall have been made therefor, setting forth the qualification of the applicant and the purpose for which the liquor is to be used."

"The commissioner may prescribe the form of all permits and applications and the facts to be set forth thereon. Before any permit is granted, the commissioner may require a bond in such form and amount as he may prescribe to insure compliance with the terms of the permit and the provisions of this title."

However, flask owners and users, according to the law, may keep liquor in their houses.

WORKING FOR NEEDY FRENCH FAMILIES

The local committee working for the French Wounded meets each Thursday at 10.30 a. m. at the home of Miss Frances D. Brooks, 51 Court street. After the touching appeal for devastated France made by Miss Anne Morgan in this city Friday afternoon it seems as if there should be an even greater interest in this work, which has been going on for a long time and much is being accomplished. Still there is much opportunity for work and the need of stockings for French families is especially great. Wool for knitting socks and sweaters may be had by calling at 51 Court street—anyone wishing to sew for French children is invited to attend Thursday morning sewing meetings.

RALLY SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH

A large audience was present last evening at the Methodist church and much interest was taken in this, the closing meeting of the "Win My Chum Week," when the Epworth League, in keeping with the thousands of other leagues throughout the country, was doing something to win young people to the church and to Christ.

The new song books were used in the praise service, under the splendid leadership of Secretary L. C. Schmalzried. Mr. Gifford of New Castle played a fine violin solo. Mrs. George E. Chaffee gave a well rendered solo. Mrs. Littlefield ably presided at the organ.

A prominent feature of the meeting was the presentation of a banner by District Superintendent T. R. Hicks to the young ladies of the church. This banner was won at the Hedding Camp meeting, because of the large attendance and interest shown by so many young ladies, under the efficient leadership of Deaconess Mae Smith. Miss Smith replied and gave the names of those who helped to win the banner.

The sermon of the evening was preached by District Superintendent T. R. Hicks who took for his theme: "How to Know Christ." It was a very helpful, practical, earnest presentation of the worth of the life that may be lived under the leadership of Christ and the great need of really knowing Christ as friend and personal Saviour.

At the close of the meeting there was a consecration service, when the members of the local council, the unit leaders, many of the members of the church and others gathered for the purpose of closer fellowship with Christ. Five people were glad to begin the life worth while with Christ as a personal Saviour.

The entire services of the week, with the exchange of meetings with the Kittery church and the splendid culmination in the meeting last evening, has caused this "Win My Chum Week" to be a time long to be remembered by many of the Portsmouth young people as well as the young people of Kittery, York, South Yarmouth, Eliot and other near-by surrounding towns.

Kittery Couple Recently Married at St. Raphael's Church.

The wedding of Frederick Bennett of Kittery and Miss Cora Witham of Kittery Point took place recently at the St. Raphael's church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. James J. Rice. The bride was attended by her cousin, Lillian Witham, and Leon Bridges was groomsmen. The couple enjoyed a wedding trip to the northern part of New Hampshire and on their return took up a residence in Kittery.

WILL ATTEND THE Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION

The International Convention of the Y. M. C. A. is to be held in Detroit, Nov. 19 to 23 inclusive, and Y. M. C. A. secretaries from all parts of the world are arriving daily in New York from overseas to attend this gathering. The local Y. M. C. A. will be represented by Secretary Le Roy C. Schmalzried, who will leave this evening for Detroit.

Vital questions of future policy will bring up general discussion at the meeting on how to further the work in the war zone and increase activities that have been developing for 30 years in other countries. Workers in all foreign countries have been recalled in order to get their views before shaping a world-wide program of social welfare. Official requests for continued work have been received from the governments of France, Italy, Belgium, Greece, Siberia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Armenia and Palestine. The men who were the Red Triangle in these countries throughout the war will take a prominent part in formulating plans for the future of the Y. M. C. A.

The foreign work of the Association received additional impetus through the war and in order to meet the demands made at that time all activities were fostered by the National War Work Council. Peace conditions have brought up the problem of continuing it in the countries entered during the conflict. A world wide program, if adopted at the convention, will be carried on by the international committee. In France alone the Y. M. C. A. served 22 different nationalities. Since that time demands for help in organizing Y. M. C. A.'s have come from hundreds of cities. Twelve municipalities in Mexico and seventeen in South America have filed requests for secretaries.

RAISE FUNDS FOR FRENCH ORPHANS

A sale of home cooked food by the young people's society of the North church was held in the parish house Saturday afternoon and was well patronized and about $40 was cleared. Home made bread, biscuits, apple pies, doughnuts and preserves were on sale, the tables being presided over by a group of young misses. The sale was held to raise funds for the support of a French orphan boy for whose support $72 was raised last year by the payment given by the Camp Fire and members of the Girls' Pachtelle League. More funds will yet have to be raised to continue the child's support, which is set at $72 yearly.

KEENE WINS Y. M. C. A. CROSS COUNTRY RUN

Herman E. Keene of Kittery was the victor in the Y. M. C. A. cross country run held on Saturday afternoon and Frank Lord was a close second, being only two yards behind Keene at the finish. George Ryan came in third.

The race started at 2.10 o'clock and at the crack of the gun George Brille took the lead with Justin S. McCarthy following a close second. Evidently the pace Brille was making was too fast to hold so for over a mile the runners ran almost together. After the third mile Brille began to slow up and also McCarthy. Keene, Lord and Ryan ran abreast until the last half mile, when the pace began to tell on Ryan and he slowed down to a walk. Keene and Lord kept the same pace until within a hundred yards of the finish and then both men began to sprint. It was a close finish and had it not been for Lord stumbling within a few yards of the finish, he, no doubt, would have won. The time was 29 minutes, 32 seconds.

The course was four and a half miles and all along the way there were people eagerly watching the contestants. Physical Director J. Fred Hicks of the Y. M. C. A. acted as starter and judge.

On Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27, at 10 a. m. a Rockingham county cross-country run will be held over the same course. All men of Rockingham county are eligible to compete regardless of Association membership. Cups and prizes will be given to the first five men to finish. The silver loving cup won by Herman E. Keene in the race of Saturday was the gift of President D. E. Northwick of the Y. M. C. A. It will be engraved with the winner's name and date of race and kept at the Association building. The prize cups to be awarded to the winners in the Rockingham county cross country run will be given to them.

Physical Director J. Fred Hicks is an enthusiastic athlete and is very popular with the Y. M. C. A. members. He is active and alert in planning things in the line of sports and the members are much interested in these events and in the regular classes held at the Y. M. C. A. building under his direction.

Mr. Hicks took up his duties at the Y. M. C. A. last January and since coming here has done excellent work. He was previously in charge of boys' work at the Y. M. C. A. in Worcester, Mass., for three years, and last winter had a young men's class at the Methodist parish house, Dover. LOCAL FANS SEE FOOTBALL UPSETS

Practically all of the big games played in this section, Saturday were witnessed by fans from this city. The greater number saw the game at New Hampshire college, while there was a large number who went to the Exeter-Audover game. There was a good number who saw the Dartmouth-Brown game, and others were at the Boston college and Holy Cross and the Harvard-Tufts game.

With the exception of the Harvard-Tufts game they were all upsets to the hope previous to the games. Audover's defeat of Exeter 13 to 0 was the greatest surprise as it was figured Exeter would win.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSE AT SANFORD

The high school team was defeated at Sanford on Saturday by the high school team of that town by a score of 13 to 6, the reverse of the score in this city. The locals were without several of their star men, laid up with injuries and failed to show as well as they have in former games.

The team will close its season on Saturday when they play Newburyport High a return game and by that time the full strength of the team will be available.

ONE WAY TO SETTLE STRIKES

London, Nov. 17.—The Communist government at Petrograd has a rather primitive but exceedingly effective method of settling strikes within its confines. Paul Dukes, a British secret agent, told The Associated Press they kill the leader and without leaders the badly organized workmen in the world is as helpless as the Russian.

"Labor leaders involved in a strike have employed many ingenious methods to hide their identity but a large number of them have failed and have been seen no more," Mr. Dukes said. "When a strike is called the Communist government tries to find the hidden leader. In most cases he finally is forgotten out and some morning the strikers awake to find their leader gone. Without their organization they are ineffective and generally go back to work under worse conditions than when they left."

CHARGE TURKS WITH PIRACY

Athens, Nov. 17.—Piracy on the high seas by swift motor boats armed with machine guns is the charge made against the Turks. From Kavala, it is announced that numerous Greek sailing vessels have lodged complaints of this piracy of which they have been the victims. The crews have been robbed in each case of all their belongings, and the cargoes looted.

These up-to-date Turkish pirates, it is said, principally prey the Aegean Sea, off the Dardanelles, and the coast of Asia Minor.

FULL BOARD TO DECIDE N. H. SCORE

Durham, N. H., Nov. 16.—The central board of football officials will determine the winner of the University of Maine-New Hampshire State College football game played here Saturday for the New England states college football championship. They will decide whether New Hampshire defeated Maine 9 to 7, or whether Maine was a 7 to 3 winner.

The question arose in the last minute of play when New Hampshire successfully worked the revival of the old kick, with Reardon, who was behind the fullback, Connors, who was kicking the ball. Glinberg, the Maine quarterback, thinking the ball was going over the goal line, let it alone, and Reardon fell on the ball.

It was the opinion of six central board men present that it was a legal touchdown. Referee A. W. Ingalls of Brown ruled it both ways and later reserved his decision. At a conference after the game both coaches, Baldwin of Maine and Cowell of New Hampshire, State, with the officials agreed that the central board of officials should decide the question.

The sport was witnessed by the largest crowd that ever witnessed a game here, and the play was sensational from start to finish.

New Hampshire kept Maine on the defensive throughout, and twice lost the ball in positions to score on Maine's five and thirty yard line. Connor, the New Hampshire State fullback, played brilliantly with Anderson and McKenney also starting. The work of Bayley and Glinberg stood out for the Maine eleven.

Connor scored for New Hampshire by a drop kick in the third period and Maine's first score came from a pretty executed forward pass in the fourth period. Glinberg's to Bayley, for 20 yards. The summary:

Three injured in auto collision

Two automobiles came together in a head on collision at Poy's Corner at 6.30 Sunday night and both machines were badly damaged. Three people were cut by flying glass so that they required medical attention.

Both were Massachusetts cars. One owned and driven by E. W. Kennerson of Haverhill, had with him his wife, daughter, and his son and his wife and little child. They were returning from a trip through the mountains and were on their way home. The other car was owned by the Newburyport Taxi Co., driven by Paul Savoy of Atkinson street, Newburyport. His passengers were Charles Burke of Amesbury, Albert J. Small, 53 Whitehall street, Amesbury, and Arthur Amier, 7 T street, Haverhill.

At Poy's Corner Mr. Kennerson was slowing up to take the turn when the other car came up the Rye road. The driver at first made a motion to turn into the Rye road but then swung out on the main road again and when he did the glare of his headlights made it impossible for Mr. Kennerson to see. He was well over to the railroad tracks and jammed on his brakes but the driver of the other car failed to clear him and they came together.

The Newburyport machine was a closed car and the glass was shattered while the wind-shield of the Kennerson car was broken and Mrs. Kennerson senior, who was in the front seat was cut under the left eye. The other occupants of the car were uninjured.

The occupants of the other car did not escape as easily. Charles Burke was cut about the face and had one bad cut under his right eye and another on the jaw. Arthur Amier was cut on the forehead. Both were given medical treatment and several stitches required to close the wounds. The other occupants of the car escaped with a few minor bruises.

Both cars were badly wrecked and were towed into this city. The Kennersons went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunt of Middle road, Mrs. Kennerson being a sister of Mr. Hunt.

PRAYER OF THE HORSE

MADE TO HIS OWNER

Although machinery has almost taken the place of the horse in the service there are many owners of horses in Portsmouth to whom the following poem should be a direct appeal:

"The Horse's Prayer," addressed to the only god he knows, his master, is by an unknown author, but is being used extensively to spread the gospel of kindness and consideration for faithful servants in the animal world.

"To Thee, My Master, I Offer My Prayer:

"Feed me, water and care for me, and when the day's work is done provide for me with shelter, a clean, dry bed and a stall wide enough for me to lie down in comfort. Talk to me. Your voice often means as much to me as the reins.

"Pat me sometimes that I may serve you the more gladly and learn to love you.

"Do not jerk the reins and do not whip me when going uphill.

"Never strike, beat or kick me when I do not understand what you want, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me, and if I fail to do your bidding, see if something is not wrong with my harness or feet.

"Examine my teeth when I do not eat. I may have an ulcerated tooth, and that, you know, is very painful.

"Do not tie my head in an unnatural position or take away my best defense against flies and mosquitoes by cutting off my tail, or limit my range of vision by blinders so I am frightened by what I cannot see.

"And finally, O, My Master, when my youthful strength is gone, do not turn me out to starve or freeze, or sell me to some cruel owner to be slowly tortured and starved to death; but do thou, My Master, take my life in the kindest way and your God will reward you here and hereafter.

"You will not consider me irreverent if I ask this in the name of Him who was born in a stable. Amen."

NOTED RANK STAFF TO BE SEEN HERE

The joint committee from Damon and Constitution lodges, Knights of Pythias, have made arrangements for the appearance here of the celebrated Peter Woodlawn Lodge, rank staff of Fynn, Mass., on the occasion of the pythianic night, early in December. The Peter Woodlawn rank staff is considered the finest in the country and is composed of thirty men. The floor work is of a spectacular character and the work on this occasion will be performed on the stage of the Borthwick Theatre so as to give all who witness a fine opportunity of witnessing the same. The committee in charge plan to extend an invitation to the various Pythian lodges in this section to be their guests on this occasion. The date will be announced shortly.

Get Ready for Thanksgiving Day.

President Wilson has designated Thursday, Nov. 27, as National Thanksgiving Day. All of us have many, many things to be thankful for, chief among which is the great blessing of having our boys back home with us after having played such an important part in cleaning up the Kaiser.

This is the seventeenth day of the month, and in just ten days from now there will be a big dinner at your house with turkey, cranberry sauce and all the other "fixins'." You are financially able to do what you have been putting off for so long; that is, to buy a new dining suite from Margeson Brothers, and right now is the accepted time. Have it in the house on Thanksgiving Day.

Yes, we know you are thankful anyway, but why not brighten up the road and make things a little easier for you and yours as you go along? You will not pass this way again.

PYTHIANS HOLD CEREMONIAL IN THIS CITY

Class of 40 Candidates Become Members of Astrabad Temple, D. O. K. K.

On Saturday evening the officers and members of Astrabad Temple, No. 151, D. O. K. K., of Manchester, came to this city and held a ceremonial. Freemans Annex was used for the occasion and a class of 40 candidates from Manchester, Concord, Derry and this city were obligated and received the work. It was nearly 11 o'clock when the ceremonial was finished and the members repaired to Pythian hall where a fine banquet was served by Itow and Voudy. When cigars were reached interesting remarks were made by Grand Chancellor Edward C. Smith, Brig. General Henry Milburn of the Uniform Rank and Supreme Representative Charles A. Frost of Manchester. A pleasing musical entertainment was furnished by the Misses L. Linzel Childs and Isabelle Arnold of Worcester, Mass. There was also chorusing by members from Manchester. Those present were unanimous in the opinion that the ceremonial was one of the most enjoyable yet held by Astrabad Temple which is saying a good deal. It is planned to hold another ceremonial, probably in Manchester, in the near future when a large class of tyros will be initiated. The visiting brothers returned to their homes by automobile, well pleased with their trip to this city.

CITY NEWS

It Should Have Come
Spending about the new bridge for the Esplanade, there is another matter of a bridge that would have greatly helped the city.
During the administration of the late Mayor Fay the city almost got ready to construct a bridge from the end of Cabot street across the North Mill pond to Bennett street. This plan or idea was killed by the influence of the Boston and Maine railroad because it meant the expenditure of some money for track alterations.
The junking avenue road and bridge across the South Mill pond was a great benefit to the city. A North Pond bridge would mean more population and extensive building in the Christian Shore district. The city should not lose sight of such a project.

Would Keep up Sport
The lovers of sport at the navy yard are still hoping that the yard will be represented by a basketball or a bowling team during the winter. The yard was on the sporting map the past summer in baseball and it ought to be an easy matter to trot out the bowlers, etc. in team work and keep up the interest.

They Have It in Mind
What will likely be the most important event in the history of the Portsmouth fire department will come with the completion of the new fire station on Court street. Already the men are becoming interested in the matter of a dedication and will perfect elaborate plans for the consecration of their new home.

The North End Coal Plant
There appears to be no movement on the part of the Boston and Maine railroad to reopen the coal handling plant at the North End docks and this valuable property is fast showing the effects of deterioration.
War, high water rates and the lack of ships, was the reason given for not operating the plant. Would it not be a good idea for the Chamber of Commerce to take up this matter with the railroad and see what the prospects are for reestablishing operations on these docks.

Mild Winter Prophets
Many of the local experts on weather predictions for the winter, have it that we are to see a mild season until the spring of 1920. They say every old time indication points to it. There are, however, a few left who refuse to believe any such prophecy and says it's all up to the good Lord, and if any of the men who fill the almanac with future weather predictions hit it right, they are favored by luck and nothing else.

They Go Anywhere Now
For several years the Portsmouth wrecking crew of the Boston and Maine railroad confined their work to a certain zone with 30 or 40 miles of this city. Now this important branch of the railroad service can expect a call most anywhere on the system. The work of the Portsmouth wreckers is equal to that of any similar crew on the system.

The Right Man
Lieut. David White, a Portsmouth man, is now in command of the receiving ship Southern at the navy yard, succeeding Lieut. Edward Beakes. The navy department could do no better than selecting a commanding officer for this station ship.

Lieut. White has seen many years in this branch of Uncle Sam's service, is well known and liked by the enlisted force. He is well fitted for the important duty on his hands and will no doubt keep up the good record of the past credited to the Southern.

DEMOCRATS SEEM TO BE GETTING BUSY

Evidently Launching a Boom for Ward Three Man for Mayor.

The Democrats are going to be busy at Woodworkers hall on Congress street tonight when the city committee has called a meeting to begin active campaign work for the municipal campaign. They say the meeting is not going to be confined to any certain committee and are appealing to any and all democrats to step in and take a hand in the proceedings. Speakers will have something to say on local politics and it looks like a boom for a ward three man for the mayoralty honors. Evidently the democrats are getting busy.
